Question Answer

Grocery Shopping Experience

Buying the necessary things from a grocery store is called grocery shopping. Nowadays, grocery stores are available everywhere, especially in modern cities. All kinds of daily necessary things like milk, eggs, bread, oil, sugar, salt, cool-drinks, etc. are found in a grocery store.

I went to Grocery Shop many times to buy some daily necessities. I went with my father. We have a grocery shop very close to our house called "Agora Super Stores". This grocery shop is very beautiful and highly decorated. My father and I went out in the evening. Before leaving, Mother made a list of what she needed. We reached the Super Store by rickshaw. The super shop is decorated with various illuminations. Many people roam outside the super shop. As a result, the Super Shop seemed more amazing. There were two guards at the entrance of Super. As soon as we entered, a guard greeted us.

Going inside, I saw that everything was beautiful and tidy. Each product is shared separately so that anyone can get the products very easily. The shop is decorated with various products. Everyone is happily following the rules and regulations and buying the necessary products. My father and I are looking at the list and buying our
